

EVAN ROTELLA - ABANDON ALL HOPE

Single Release — February 12, 2026

Genre: Indie Rock / Rock

Explicit Lyrics: No

Location: Niagara Falls, Ontario

About the Single

Abandon All Hope is a darker, rock-leaning single from Canadian singer-songwriter Evan Rotella and the title track of his forthcoming 2026 album. Co-written with John-Angus and Colin MacDonald of The Trews, the song explores choosing connection over fear — two people taking a leap together even when the outcome is uncertain.

Sound & Influences

Full-band indie rock with emotional grit and atmospheric storytelling.

FFO: Brian Fallon, The Gaslight Anthem, modern Canadian rock.

Credits

Written by: Evan Rotella, John-Angus MacDonald, Colin MacDonald

Produced by: John-Angus MacDonald

Recorded at: Halo Studios (Hamilton, ON)

Drums: Mark Rogers

Artist Bio (Short)

Evan Rotella is a singer-songwriter from Niagara Falls, Ontario who has been performing and writing songs for nearly a decade. Since beginning his release career in 2020, he has built momentum through acclaimed releases, major festival appearances, and performances at legendary venues across Canada and the U.S. His upcoming album Abandon All Hope is slated for release in fall 2026.

Listen / Pre-save

<https://show.co/6XDUpS4>

Website

www.evanrotella.com

Contact

evan@evanrotella.com